

Website Terms and Conditions

H. Wesley Bryant | HWBRYANT — Author and Collaborative Works

Website: <https://hwesleybryant.com> | Effective date: September 2026

These Terms and Conditions govern use of this website and purchases made through its online store. The website is currently owned and operated by H. Wesley Bryant under the name HWBRYANT — Author and Collaborative Works (referred to as “we,” “us,” or “our”). By using the website or placing an order, you agree to these terms, subject to any rights that cannot lawfully be excluded.

1. Website use

Visitors may browse the website for lawful personal and informational purposes. You agree not to interfere with website security, misuse its forms or store, introduce malicious code, or use its content in a manner that infringes another person’s rights. We may restrict access where reasonably necessary to protect the website or comply with law.

2. Content and intellectual property

Unless otherwise indicated, articles, book descriptions, photographs, graphics, downloadable materials, and other original content on this website are owned by H. Wesley Bryant or used with permission. All rights are reserved. You may share links to our public pages and make reasonable personal, noncommercial use of material where permitted by law. Reproduction, republication, commercial distribution, or adaptation of substantial content requires prior permission, except where allowed by law. Quoted material and third-party works remain the property of their respective owners.

3. Products and availability

Our online store may offer printed books, workbooks, study guides, posters, starter kits, and other related products. Product descriptions, prices, availability, and shipping options appear on the relevant product or checkout pages. We make reasonable efforts to keep this information accurate, but may correct errors and update or discontinue products. If an error materially affects an order, we will contact you before proceeding and offer an appropriate correction or cancellation.

4. Orders and payment

Orders are placed through WooCommerce. Payments are processed through our PayPal merchant integration using the payment methods displayed at checkout. An automated order acknowledgment does not necessarily mean an order has been accepted for fulfillment. We may decline or cancel an order for legitimate reasons, including unavailability, suspected fraud, or a material pricing error; if payment has been collected for a canceled order, we will issue the appropriate refund. Prices and any applicable taxes and delivery charges are shown at checkout before payment.

5. Shipping and fulfillment

We package and fulfill physical-product orders ourselves and use third-party postal or delivery carriers to transport them. Available destinations, shipping charges, and any estimated dispatch or delivery times will be displayed at checkout or communicated before fulfillment. Delivery estimates are not guarantees. Please provide a complete, accurate shipping address and contact us promptly through the website Contact page if an order detail needs correction. If an order is delayed, lost, or arrives damaged, please contact us so we can investigate and provide any remedy required by law.

6. Cancellations before dispatch

If you wish to cancel an order, contact us as soon as possible using the website Contact page and include the order number. We will try to cancel orders that have not yet been dispatched. Once an order has shipped, the returns process below will normally apply. This does not limit any statutory cancellation rights that may apply.

7. Voluntary 30-day returns

For eligible physical products, you may request a change-of-mind return within 30 calendar days after delivery. Contact us through the website Contact page within that period, quoting your order number, to request return instructions. Please do not send items back before receiving instructions. Returned products should be unused, in resalable condition, and securely packaged, with all originally supplied components. We may refuse a voluntary return that does not meet these conditions, to the extent permitted by law.

For change-of-mind returns, the customer is responsible for return postage and for choosing a suitable tracked shipping method. Original outbound shipping charges are not refundable for voluntary returns, except where applicable law requires otherwise. We will refund the eligible product purchase price to the original payment method after receiving and inspecting the return, normally within 10 business days of receipt; payment-provider processing may take additional time.

8. Starter kits and bundled products

Starter kits are sold as complete packages. For a voluntary change-of-mind return, the entire kit must be returned together, including all books, study guides, posters, and other items originally supplied. We do not offer partial voluntary refunds for individual kit components. If an individual component is missing, defective, damaged, or incorrectly supplied, contact us: we will address the affected item and provide any remedy required by applicable law without requiring a full-kit return where that would be inappropriate.

9. Damaged, defective, or incorrect items

If you receive a damaged, defective, or incorrect product, contact us promptly through the website Contact page with your order number, a description of the problem, and photographs if reasonably available. Depending on the circumstances and applicable law, we will arrange a replacement, repair where appropriate, refund, or another legally required remedy. We will not require you to bear reasonable return-shipping costs for items that qualify for a remedy due to our error or a product defect. Nothing in these terms limits non-waivable consumer rights.

10. Digital products, if offered

If downloadable eBooks or other digital products are offered for direct purchase in the future, the product page and checkout will state the format, delivery method, permitted use, and any applicable cancellation or refund conditions. Digital content is licensed for personal use unless expressly stated otherwise and may not be redistributed unlawfully. Any mandatory legal rights remain unaffected. This section does not mean that digital products are currently sold directly on this website.

11. External links and services

The website may link to external retailers, social platforms, payment providers, or other websites. Purchases made on those third-party websites are governed by their own terms. We are not responsible for external websites or services outside our control. PayPal's applicable terms also govern use of its payment services.

12. Privacy

Our Privacy Policy explains how we collect and handle personal information, including customer order information, contact-form submissions, and newsletter subscriptions. Please review the Privacy Policy linked in the website footer.

13. Information and liability

Articles, commentary, religious studies, and other editorial content are provided for general information and discussion. We endeavor to keep the website accurate and available but do not guarantee uninterrupted access or that all content is error-free. To the extent permitted by applicable law, we are not liable for indirect or consequential losses arising solely from website use. Nothing in these terms excludes liability or remedies that cannot legally be excluded, including applicable consumer protections.

14. Changes to these terms

We may update these Terms and Conditions from time to time. The version displayed when you place an order will ordinarily govern that purchase, subject to applicable law and any changes agreed with you. The effective date above identifies the current published version.

15. Contact

For order questions, returns, cancellations, or enquiries about these terms, please use the protected Contact form available through the Contact page at <https://hwesleybryant.com>. Include your order number where relevant. We do not publish a direct email address for these enquiries.
